

We have an opportunity in our Edmonton office for an electrical utility distribution engineer. The successful candidate will be responsible for providing designs for a wide range of distribution projects.

Qualifications

The ideal candidate will have design experience with overhead and underground distribution facilities. Must have a Professional Engineering designation in Alberta.

Clear knowledge of all Canadian and Alberta utility codes, standards and guidelines.

Excellent communication and planning skills to effectively meet the needs of clients in a timely manner.

Excellent leadership skills able establish a positive working relationship in a team environment.

Applications

Qualified candidates are invited to submit their resumes to:
aharper@ses-eng.com

Those selected for the position will be contacted.